Nicknames can be assigned to each of your accounts (except credit cards) in online banking or in-person to help make them easier to identify.

When setting up direct deposit and transfers to other financial institutions you will need some specific account information:

- Addition Financial ABA/routing and transit number: 263181384
- 14-digit unique checking account number / MICR number (example would be 14600001234561)

Your personal account numbers can be located:

- Welcome letter with account cards received at account opening.
- Online banking » Profile » My Account Numbers.
- Bottom of your checks.

Credit cards are identified with the last 6 digits of your card number.
