THING®

Lifestyle creep is the tendency to increase your spending as your income increases

The spending increase can happen so gradually that you don't even notice it

Things you once considered to be luxuries start getting treated as needs...

...and all of your “extra” income
seems to suddenly disappear

What Does Lifestyle Creep LOOK LIKE?

Lifestyle creep can reveal itself in many different ways within your budget

LIFESTYLE CREEP WARNING SIGNS

You tend to buy only brand-name items—never generic

You tend to upgrade or replace items sooner than necessary

You're subscribed to more services than you have time for

The Dangers of
LIFESTYLE CREEP

DANGERS OF LIFESTYLE CREEP

SAVINGS SABOTAGE

More money spent on insignificant lifestyle upgrades means less money going toward your savings goals and financial priorities

LACK OF RESOURCES

Lifestyle creep makes it more difficult to adjust to future decreases in pay from unemployment or retirement

How to Stop

LIFESTYLE CREEP

Stop lifestyle creep with three simple rules:

- 1. Raise Your Savings
- 2. Choose Value Over Luxury
- 3. Resist the Pressure

1

Raise Your Savings

When your income increases, fund your savings goals before considering lifestyle improvements

Choose Value Over Luxury

Resist costly, meaningless upgrades
by appreciating
the value of what you already have

DO THIS!

BUY THAT!

SPEND!

Resist the Pressure

Stay true to your own priorities and resist spending pressure from family, friends, neighbors and media
